Quarter Kings

Our API is designed to work like a high score keeper for arcade games. Users will create an account with the frontend client page and request API keys on a per game basis. They can then use those keys to store, delete, and retrieve float values that represent scores in our backend DB from our backend endpoints.